PRESS RELEASE / 2020-03-06

Fast-growing SaaS company PCG Solutions, provider of industry-leading eClinical solution Viedoc™, changes name to Viedoc Technologies.

For almost two decades, PCG Solutions has been developing Viedoc™, a market-leading eClinical solution for pharmaceutical companies and organizations conducting clinical trials. Viedoc is applicable across all market segments and used for clinical trials worldwide, meeting all regulatory standards, including ICH GCP, 21 CFR part 11, HIPAA.

PCG Solutions has long been synonymous with its product, which is why the name change to Viedoc Technologies is a natural step to further strengthen the brand around the world.

"This is the beginning of a new chapter. We have an exciting future ahead, continuing our rapid growth trajectory, and the name change reflects our commitment to keep Viedoc at the forefront of eClinical technology," says Mats Klaar CEO.

Continuing the work for a healthier world, Viedoc Technologies remains committed to providing the same degree of excellence to our clients.
